

The Method

Basically, you will be Private Messaging people on youtube, so you will need to create a youtube account.

What you will be pming, is the following message.

Subject: Youtube Partnership with TGN!

Message:

Hello mate, I won't say too much here, as you will think this is a mass YouTube spam email if I did :\ Basically, my channel name is OmgItsAga, and I'm a youtuber just like you, but with a difference. I'm a youtube partner with TGN, and furthermore, Im able to get OTHER PEOPLE partnership with TGN aswell!

Ive gone through your channel, and seen you meet the requirements for partnership with TGN. This means you get the banner, monetisation, etc. Please add my skype, 'OmgItsAga', and we can go through the partnership process there. Looking forward to hearing from you!

-Aga

p.s. I'm not actually OmgItsAga, I'm messaging you on his behalf. He will be the one to partner you however.

Skype: OmgItsAga

How simple is that?

However, people who we are private messaging will need to meet certain requirements, which are:

- ☐ 700 daily views, and not already a youtube partner. This can be checked at socialblade. To do so, go to <http://socialblade.com/youtube/user/CHANNELNAMEHERE>. At this page, the stats of the youtube channel are listed, such as daily views, subscribers, if they are partnered or not, and the averages. This is the spot you check to see if a channel has 700 daily views on average or not. Above 700 is good too. Below means they cannot be private messaged.

Current # of views: 668441 :: Gaining 1198.2 per day on average

Apply For Partner

To check if a channel is partnered, you refer to the top left of the page.

If it says 'YT Partner' or network/claimed, then they are not eligible. If there is nothing here, such as in the below picture, the channel passes this requirement.

- ☐ At least 15 videos.
- ☐ NO copyrighted content. This means they cannot have videos all using music by non royalty free artists. This would mean artists like Eminem are off limits, however Dj Smack would be acceptable. This would also mean channels which upload TV shows or movies, etc, or other copyrighted

So how do I make money off this?

The guy who is running this entire operation, OmgItsAga, is paying people $.50 for each person they PM with the above message, who adds his skype

(contained in the PM) and sign the TGN. In an hour, you can very easily PM 60 people or more (I myself have done so numerous times). If your fast, rates of 100 PM's an hour can be achieved. Everybody wants youtube partnership nowadays, and therefore the % of people who reply to this PM is quite high. If they add the skype, they will sign the TGN.

Now that you understand this, you can see that payouts of $20-60 for an hours work are very achievable.

How do I get paid for my private messages?

By going to this form: click below.

You can enter in your email address, the usernames of the channels you PM'ed

How can I find channels?

There are two methods which work well to find suitable channels to test.

Method one, by finding one suitable channel, and then crawling through their subbox, and then their subboxes, and so on. Hundreds of different channels you would of never found normally can be found this way.

	PimpStickFran 162 subscribers
	ThirdAgeFilm ツ 7,575 subscribers
	Thanks For 10k! 10,811 subscribers
	BrianSnarfey 785 subscribers
	So Wreck3d "The Combo" 35,017 subscribers
	SUPAH FRENZ 74,076 subscribers
	SUPAH FRENZ 17,406 subscribers
	Podcrash 4,901 subscribers

• Example, you open tabs with all these channels, and check if their eligible. Once this is done, you go through all their subboxes, and repeat the process.

Method two, is to use socialblade. Once your on a eligible channel, open it up on socialblade, and click this link:

FAQ

Q. How do I know I'll get paid?

A. OmgItsAga wants you to keep PMing people for him, and if he doesn't pay people for the people who add his skype, people won't do it anymore. Thus, he will pay what we are owed.

Q. How long will it take to get paid?

A. We usually get paid at the end of every week on a Sunday, as it usually takes a few days for people to check their PMs.

Q. How does OmgItsAga know who to pay when people add his skype?

A. When they add him, he will see their channel name. All he needs to do then is check the form [where you submitted the people you recruited] to see who PMed who, and then pay the corresponding email address.
