THE TEXAS SOUTHERN RECOVERERSHIP CASE

Appointment of C. L. Taylor as Receiver, and S. P. Jones as Attorney.

Hon. H. B. Levy issued the following order of court yesterday:

United States and Mexican Trust Co.

The Texas Southern Railway Co.

It is ordered by the court that C. L. Taylor be and is hereby appointed as sole receiver of the Texas Southern railway company, defendant, and all its property, rights, privileges and franchises in the above entitled and numbered cause in this court and as heretofore placed in the hands of a receiver by a former order herein of this court made in said cause hereby expressed containing said receivership in this court in this cause. The said C. L. Taylor will execute a good and sufficient bond, conditioned as required by law, in the sum of $250,000.00 to be approved by the judge, and the salary of said C. L. Taylor as receiver is hereby fixed at the sum of three hundred dollars per month. This order to be effective October 1, 1906. It is further ordered by the court that S. P. Jones who has resigned as receiver in this cause and whose resignation is accepted be and is hereby appointed general attorney of the receiver to do and perform all legal duties that may be necessary to the receivership cause and for the receiver in the performance of his trust duties to include litigation in all the courts both appellate and inferior now pending and that may arise and the salary of the said attorney be fixed at one hundred and seventy-five dollars per month, which salary is to include all expenses in attending litigation of any and all courts and preparing of briefs of cause and service. This part of the order effective from and after October 1, 1906.

Richard B. Levy, Judge.

It appears to the court that in order to create a greater fund for creditors out of the earnings of the receivership it is necessary that from and after October 1, 1906, that it be reduced to the practical management as follows:

1. That the office force of the receivership be reduced to one clerk and the receiver, and a traffic manager, who shall also do general duties. That the receiver do and perform all duties of general superintendent and manager in person and that the office of the receiver be located in the depot of the company without further pay for rent, except rent for storage of valuable records.

2. That no betterments of the property be made without prior application therefor by receiver, and a hearing had thereon by master in chancery. Requisitions and necessary repairs may be made by the receiver and supplies purchased therefor.

3. No indebtedness whatever shall be created by receiver except necessary operating expenses, without prior application therefor on day order granting same.

4. That the receiver operate the road in a practical and economical manner on not exceeding 30 per cent. of the gross income and must deliver monthly as heretofore ordered, the remaining 70 per cent. or more to M. Young commissioner in sale.

5. That the salary and consideration of the receiver be fixed at $500 per month and that he be allowed an attorney who shall perform all legal duties connected with and pertaining to the receivership.

That all vouchers and pay roll of the receiver be allowed by master in chancery on such vouchers, and pay roll before payment and unless no done such vouchers and pay roll shall not be paid nor become valid vouchers for credit of such expenditures of money.

KIRBY ON BAILEY

Lone Star Lumber Man Sentenced the Senator's Services

BECAUSE OF ABILITY

Senator He Was Retained, Owing to His Prestige and Influence as a Member of the Upper House of Congress.

Houston, Sept. 22.—Friends of Senator Joseph W. Bailey are actively repeating recent publications attacking his character. One of these published in certain Chicago, New York and Texas dailies Friday charges that John H. Kirby, president of the Kirby Lumber company, had not denied paying Mr. Bailey a fee of $25,000 for assisting in the sale of $2,000,000 worth of property. Mr. Kirby said:

"The statement that I employed Mr. Bailey because of his influence as a United States senator is false. I employed him to reduce my possession of the Kirby Lumber company treasury assets that certain Wall street interests were fraudulently trying to take from me. I employed Mr. Bailey because of his knowledge of Texas statutes and court practice which enabled him to cope with the situation better than a New York lawyer could have done. The fee paid him was small, that would have been charged by the New York lawyer able to successfully represent me."

President Ripley of the Atchafalaya, Topoka and Santa Fe wired here from Chicago:

"The statement that Senator Bailey ever had any character of negotiation with us is untrue. All of our transactions with Mr. Kirby of the Kirby Lumber company were conducted by me and with Mr. Kirby personally. I never saw Bailey in my life, and never knew that he was connected with Mr. Kirby or the Kirby Lumber company as an attorney or otherwise."

NOT IN NEWSPAPERS.

What Bailey Has to Say Will Be Upon the Stump.

St. Louis, Sept. 22.—Senator Bailey of Texas arrived Friday from Washington on his way to Gainesville, Tex. He declined to say anything regarding the movement of the Harris County Good Government Club of Texas to defeat his reelection.

"What I have to say regarding that," he said, "will be said when I get to Texas, and on the stump, not in the newspapers."

Senator Bailey also declined to talk about the suit of the state of Texas against the Western Electric Co. company, which was filed by Attorney General Lightfoot at Austin to oust the company from the state and collect penalties aggregating $5,000,000.

When asked if he had anything to say about the charge made by H. Clay Pierce in the Great suit, that he on Pierce's part to retaliate to all company in Texas after it had been ousted before, Senator Bailey said:

"You can just say that I refused to be interviewed on any subject. I am not talking politics any today. I am just here on my way home at Gainesville, from Washington, and on the morning fast trains do not run to my home, I am compelled to stay in St. Louis until 8 o'clock tonight. My life has no political or business significance."

THE LUMP IN HIS SIDE.

A man noted for intemperance habits was induced to sign the pledge in his own way, which he did in these words: "I pledge myself to drink no more intoxicating drinks for one year." Near the end of the year he appeared at a temperance meeting without once having touched a drop. "Are you going to sign the pledge again?" he was asked. "Yes," he replied. "And I am going to sign for 999 years, and if I succeed in keeping it then I will take a life-lease."

Here is the method used by one farmer to clean out rats: "On a large number of old shingles I put about a half-pound of molasses each, and on that, with my pocket knife, I scraped a small amount of concentrated lye. I placed the old shingles around under the stable floor and under the crib. The next morning I found forty dead rats, and the rest left the farm for parts unknown. I have cleared many rats of the pests in this way and have never known it to fail."—Wallace's Farmer.

THIS IS MY 58TH BIRTHDAY.

Abdul Hamid II, the present sultan of Turkey, was born September 22, 1842, the second son of Sultan Abdul Mejid. He succeeded to the throne on the death of his eldest brother, Sultan Murad V, August 31, 1876.

The present sultan is the thirty-fourth in male descent of the house of Osman, the founder of the Turkish empire, and the twenty-eighth sultan since the conquest of Constantinople.

Abdul Hamid has two children and six living brothers and sisters. By the law of succession obeyed in the reigning family, the crown is inherited according to seniority by the male descendants of Osman, sprung from the imperial harem. Consequently it is not Abdul Hamid's son who is his legitimate successor, but the sultan's brother, Mehmed-Rehman, who was born in 1844. The heir apparent is of decidedly reactionary tendencies, and it is said that when the present sultan dies a movement will be made to place his son, Mehmed-Rehman, on the throne. The latter is more modern and progressive in his views and will have the support of the "Young Turkey" party, and all those who desire to see the country advance along the line of modern civilization.

THIS IS MY 58TH BIRTHDAY.

Joseph D. Sayers, ex-governor of Texas, was born in Granada, Miss., Sept. 23, 1812. He removed to Texas with his parents when ten years old and has made the Lone Star State his home ever since. He served in the Confederate army through the Civil war, and was admitted to the bar in 1864. He entered public life as a state senator in 1872, was lieutenant-governor in 1878-80, and from 1885 to his election as governor in 1888 he was a prominent member of congress. He served two terms as governor and the wise policy pursued by him during the four years he acted as chief executive added greatly to the development of the natural and industrial resources of his state. Two great calamities visited Texas during Governor Sayers' administration. The first occurred in 1889, when great overflows occurred in the valleys of the Brazos and Colorado rivers, destroying the crops and rendering many people homeless. In September, 1900, the great storm that cost the city of Galveston and the coast country many thousands of lives and an appalling destruction of property took place. Governor Sayers took personal charge of the distribution of the several million dollars contributed to the relief of the sufferers, and in this work he looked after every detail so carefully that no word of complaint ever was heard of the manner in which the vast fund was handled by him.

DEMONSTRATION MADE.

Done to Show How Powerless Havana Is Against Rebels.

Havana, Sept. 22.—A demonstration was made Friday by armed revolutionists within a mile of the scene of the peace conference. General Agramonte, with 300 insurgents, surrounded the city, and a half a mile eastward from the city, a line of sentries was posted. The Associated Press was told that the object of the insurgents in coming so close was to show Secretary Taft how completely Havana is in their grasp.

CONQUEST OF CUBA.

It is Declared Present Insurrection Can Last Indefinitely.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The true condition of affairs in Cuba has been made known through advice received here of most authentic origin. "These people are not going to stop," said a reliable source, "and the present insurrection can last indefinitely because of the fact that neither the insurgents nor the government is able to overthrow the other. All business interests, it is declared, want intervention, while the insurgents are opposed to it because they want office and graft, which intervention would not bring. Trade is dead."

The mayor's order to fire was obeyed, and the shot was effective. Colonel C. F. Spencer of Knoxville has wired ex-Governor Cox under the terms of the Third regiment if needed.

CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

These Oppose Union With Northern Presbyterians Convened At Dallas, Dallas, Sept. 20.—At a meeting of these Presbyterians opposing merger with the Northern Presbyterians, held here, Rev. Dr. W. H. Berry of Weatherford, who presided the opening session, reviewed the history of the rise and work of his church, and declared it will be an organization of power and influence, notwithstanding reports of mergers and junctions with other churches. He likened the organization to a side-whistle and remained for some time visible to the inhabitants of Dallasville vicinity. Presumably his old home. He further declared, by way of comparison, that his church shall continue to rise in power until millions shall be redeemed from the curse.

Reports were heard, reviews listened to and discourses entered into by unanimous vote of the synod a special committee on litigation was named and empowered to look after all of the proposed litigation of the synod. This applies to Trinity and vernal and to all of the educational and other church property. On this committee by vote of the house, were placed Judge Peadergast of Marshall, C. W. McKinney of Dallas and W. W. Beall of Sweetwater.

The stated clerk, Rev. B. C. Lockett, was authorized by vote of the synod to make formal request upon the stated clerk of the Cumberland Presbyterian church of the United States of America for all of the papers and records of the Cumberland Presbyterian church.

That statement presbyter was repeated.

Rev. B. C. Lockett and Judge Peadergast made addresses. Mr. Lockett declared the Cumberland Presbyterian church was never more needed than at this time. Judge Peadergast spoke on pending legislation.

CORN STATISTICS.

Increase in Acreage This Year Over Thirty-Five Per Cent.

Guthrie, Sept. 22.—Secretary of Agriculture of the Territory of Oklahoma McNeely estimated an increase in corn acreage of 35 per cent over last year. The average yield, he said, will be 40 bushels, or a total of 175,000,000 bushels. If this would hold good, all the acreage of 2,000,000 in this would even 100,000,000 bushels. This would be more than double the yield of last year for the two territories.

DYNAMITE EXPLODES

Carload of the Combustible Blows Up, Killing Several Persons and Injuring Many and Destroying the Town.

Knoxville, Sept. 22.—A car loaded with dynamite exploded in the Louisville and Nashville railway yards about 800 feet from the depot, says a special from Jellison, Tenn., to the South. The explosion happened at 5 o'clock Friday morning.

At least eleven lives were lost and about fifty persons injured. The town is practically destroyed. Property damage is fully $1,000,000. At least 500 persons are homeless. Among the dead are George Atkins, aged thirty, a lineman; John Cook, aged fifty, a car inspector of the Southern railroad; Walter Rodgers, aged twenty-eight, a clerk in the United States warehouse; and John Johnson, a negro. Five other bodies have been found, but are so badly damaged as to be beyond recognition. Without exception every business house in the town was either totally wrecked or badly damaged. The union depot of the Southern railway and Louisville and Nashville railroad was shattered and shattered.

The explosion occurred on the Kentucky side of Jellison, and in consequence every house on that side is wrecked. Not one was spared. A large number of residences were located near the railroad on the Kentucky side, and these, without an exception, were demolished. Residences on a mile from the scene were damaged, and in some instances chimneys were knocked down.

The car was consigned to the Rand Powder company and arrived in the morning. A number of physicians from Knoxville and other points went to the scene.

The site of the explosion is marked by a hole twenty feet deep and about thirty feet in diameter.

The entire third floor of the Carthage Inn, a large brick structure, was blown off. The Tennessee side of Jellison escaped.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Fort Worth, Texas, says: Laura B. Payne of Fort Worth, in accepting the nomination on the Socialist ticket for congress in this district, comes out strongly for government ownership of railroads and goes a step further than Bryan in advocating government ownership of all packing houses.

An Ordinance.
An ordinance requiring boxes placed under all privies, and providing penalties for violations thereof, and declaring an emergency, etc. It is ordered by the city council of the city of Marshall:

Section 1. That all persons, owning, occupying, or using any privy within the corporate limits of the city of Marshall are required to place a box, or other receptacle, under such privy, of sufficient depth and size to receive and hold all deposits of feces of said privy, for at least thirty days.

Section 2. Any person or persons, who shall hereafter use any privy within the corporate limits of the city of Marshall, unless at the time of its use, such box or receptacle, as is mentioned in section 1, of this ordinance, is under said privy, in such position, that it will receive and hold the deposits of said privy, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than two nor more than twenty-five dollars, for each offense.

Section 3. Whereas we have no law requiring proper boxes placed under privies, and the deposits therefrom become scattered, and endanger the health of the community, therefore a public emergency exists requiring that this ordinance be passed on the day on which it is introduced.

Adopted Sept. 17th, 1904. Ayes, 18. Nays, none. Approved Sept. 18th, 1904.
Attest:
H. S. Rice, Clerk. J. H. Hays, Mayor.
